

HAZARD MITIGATION PLAN DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

Jurisdictions with Alternative Goals

Linn County Goals

1. Reduce the risk of the loss of life, property, and economic activity as a result of the occurrence of hazards.
2. Increase the capacity of local government and residents to respond to the occurrence of hazards.
3. Increase the capacity of local government and residents to recover from the occurrence of hazards.

Cedar Rapids Goals

1. Minimize injuries and loss of life.
2. Reduce or eliminate damages due to hazards.
3. Manage operations with or without county, state, and federal assistance.
4. Return to pre-hazard event conditions in a timely and planned manner.

Ely Hazard Mitigation Planning Goals

1. Protect the health and safety of residents, visitors, staff, and emergency personnel (paid or volunteer) during and after hazard events.
2. Minimize losses to existing and future structures in hazard areas. Critical facilities are priority structures.
3. Maintain local services and infrastructure in order to reduce community, economic, and environmental disruption during and after hazard events.
4. Educate residents and visitors about local hazards and the resources available in the community.
5. Apply public funds to hazard mitigation projects in an efficient and fair manner to minimize dependence on state and federal resources.
6. Effectively use all forms of assistance available for mitigation hazards.

Lisbon Hazard Mitigation Planning Goals

1. Develop mitigation actions that can affect multiple hazards.
2. Develop mitigation actions that improve the quality of life for residents.
3. Develop mitigation actions that take steps to mitigate the consequences of hazards.
4. Identify funding sources for mitigation actions.
5. Protect the health of residents.
6. Ensure a return to pre-disaster conditions as soon as possible
7. Ensure compliance in the National Flood Insurance Program.

Fairfax Hazard Mitigation Planning Goals

1. Protect the health and safety of residents, visitors, staff, and emergency personnel (paid or volunteer) during and after hazard events.
2. Minimize losses to existing and future structures in hazard areas. Critical facilities are priority structures.
3. Maintain local services and infrastructure in order to reduce community, economic, and environmental disruption during and after hazard events.
4. Educate residents and visitors about local hazards and the resources available in the community.
5. Apply public funds to hazard mitigation projects in an efficient and fair manner to minimize dependence on state and federal resources.
6. Plan response operations with or without county, state, or federal assistance.
7. Return to pre-hazard event conditions in a timely and planned manner.

Mount Vernon Hazard Mitigation Planning Goals

1. Develop mitigation actions that can affect multiple hazards.
2. Develop mitigation actions that improve the quality of life for residents.
3. Develop mitigation actions that take steps to mitigate the consequences of hazards.
4. Identify funding sources for mitigation actions.
5. Protect the health of residents.
6. Ensure a return to pre-disaster conditions as soon as possible
7. Ensure compliance in the National Flood Insurance Program.